It's a special time when the Austin and Polish Film communities come together. Since 2005, the Austin Polish Film Festival (APFF) has become the place for storytellers and audiences to connect and experience Polish cinematography.

APFF attracts a diverse audience and gives Polish filmmakers an important platform to feature their unique films. Over the years we've screened over 400 films, hosted numerous filmmakers, and contributed to the vibrant Austin film scene.

This year's festival will present carefully selected films from among the latest award-winning features, documentaries, and animations.

This year, to continue a tradition of complementary events, we partnered with a local nonprofit, Dot Dot Dot Connect, that will curate and present an exhibition of highly acclaimed Polish poster artist, Leszek Zebrowski.

An Audience Award will be presented based on audience members rating of screened films during the festival. More information is coming at www.austinpolfilm.com

Award-winning and recent Polish films, including features, documentaries and animations will be presented at the Austin Film Society Cinema on

October 28 – 30 and November 4 – 6.
